Inmate Information

Inmates sentenced to the Corrections Center may be housed in the Corrections Center or at one of the satellite locations utilized by the CCSD. Specific information concerning visitation procedures, program access, and directions to the facility, etc. may be acquired from the specific facility.

Booking

The CCCC's hours of operation for dropping off and picking up prisoners are from 6:00 am to 6:00 pm. Prisoners on County Warrants are booked at any time. Booking information can be obtained by contacting the booking desk at (216) 698-2847 or (216) 698-2848.

Mail & Telephones

The mailing address for the Corrections Center is:

Inmate Name & SO Number
Cuyahoga County Jail
P.O. Box 5600
Cleveland, OH 44101

The Corrections Center will not accept any packages or money for inmates through the mail except paperback books. Books may be purchased from any bookstore, but must be mailed from the bookstore. All incoming mail must be in an embossed or metered envelope; no stamped incoming mail will be accepted. Stamped mail will be returned to sender unopened. All incoming mail must have a proper return address. Effective May 9, 2016, incoming mail which has been decorated in any way (envelope and/or contents) will not be accepted.

Telephones are made available for inmate use on a daily basis. These phones are coinless collect phones. No incoming phone calls or messages are accepted for inmates.

Inmates can purchase a prepaid calling card from commissary to make calls. Family and friends may set up an advance connect account via Securus technologies to receive calls.

Damage to Property

The CCSD will be reimbursed for any damages to Cuyahoga County property caused by an inmate.
